PRESIDENT'S SECRETARIAT

New Delhi, the 4th July 1960

No. 33-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Bihar Police:—

Name of the Officer and rank.

Shri Jagdish Singh,
Constable, District Armed Police,
Shahabad, (deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

On the 12th April, 1958, Constable Jagdish Singh had gone to the Beat House at Agiaon, Police Station Sandesh, Shahabad District, to deliver an important message. At the request of the Assistant Sub-Inspector in-charge of the Beat House he postponed his departure in order to accompany the former on his night patrol. At about 10.00 p.m. the Assistant Sub-Inspector and Constable Jagdish Singh set out on foot on the night patrol. Both the officers were in uniform. The Assistant Sub-Inspector carried an electric torch and a shot gun while the Constable had only the regulation lathi. On their way they noticed a group of 5 persons loitering by the road side in a suspicious manner. When challenged, these persons gave evasive answers and the Assistant Sub-Inspector after taking away a stick from one of them, decided to take them to Garhani for interrogation and identification. The Constable led the party and the Assistant Sub-Inspector followed behind the suspects. When they had proceeded a short distance, two or three suspects suddenly whipped out knives and murderously attacked the Assistant Sub-Inspector. As a result of the suddenness of the attack, the Assistant Sub-Inspector was completely overpowered and his gun was snatched from him and he collapsed on the ground in a pool of blood. Regardless of their number and the fact that they now had the Assistant Sub-Inspector's gun, Constable Jagdish Singh without hesitation went to the assistance of his officer and tried to beat off his assailants with his lathi. The criminals made a concerted attack on him and inflicted two severe injuries on the upper part of his right thigh. Though grievously disabled, Constable Jagdish Singh tried to run for help to a village about a quarter of a mile away. His assailants pursued him and after a short distance overpowered him and stabbed him in the back. Constable Jagdish Singh lost consciousness. At about 3.30 a.m. a party of rural police discovered the two Policemen and took them to the District Hospital at Arrah where in spite of the best possible medical aid, Constable Jagdish Singh expired.

In this encounter Constable Jagdish Singh showed conspicuous gallantry and devotion to duty of a very high order in the performance of which he laid down his life.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 34-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the President's Police and Fire Services Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name of the Officer and rank.

Shri Muzaffar Husain,
Sub-Inspector, Civil Police,
Shahjahanpur, Uttar Pradesh, (deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On the morning of the 3rd July, 1955, information was received of the presence in some fields between villages Nagaria Prayagpur and Bansia of a well-armed gang of dacoits under the leadership of the notorious Chhutkai Manihar, the chief lieutenant of the notorious outlaw Sanwal Singh, who had earlier been shot dead in District Kheri. The Station Officer, Police Station Powayan and Second Officer Sub-Inspector Shri Muzaffar Husain collected whatever police were available, a few gun licencees and some villagers and proceeded at once to these villages. On arrival at Nagaria at about 11.30 hours, the police party made preliminary inquiries about the likely places of the gang's presence, and then forming three groups, closed in from three different directions on the dacoits' position in some Arhar fields. When they were within 200 yards of the dacoits' position the latter fired, so indicating that they had spotted the police. The police quickly took cover and after an hour when nothing further transpired again advanced and shouted to the dacoits to surrender. The dacoits' only answer was a heavy volley of fire which was returned by the police parties.

At about 3.15 p.m. two of the dacoits made a dash to escape. One of them was shot dead and the other overpowered and taken into custody. Meanwhile, the other dacoits had, under cover of the standing crops, ensconced themselves in a pit on a barren piece of land away from the crops. Police reinforcements arrived from district headquarters, but all attempts to drive the dacoits out of the pit proved unsuccessful. Darkness was setting in and it was feared that the dacoits might escape once night fell. The police parties closed in further on the dacoits' position. Sub-Inspector Muzaffar Husain who was in charge of one of the police parties bravely led his men forward as near to the pit as possible despite constant firing by the dacoits. The audacity of this action took the dacoits completely by surprise and resulted in the leader of the gang Chhutkai being shot dead and in another dacoit's surrender, and also in the recovery of a large quantity of looted property, guns and ammunition. Tragically, during this final action against the dacoits Sub-Inspector Muzaffar Husain was shot through the right eye and died almost instantaneously.

Throughout the encounter, Sub-Inspector Muzaffar Husain displayed great initiative, conspicuous courage and devotion to duty of a very high order.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the President's Police and Fire Services Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 35-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Madhya Pradesh Police:—

Name of the Officer and rank.

Shri Kartar Singh, Company Commander, 4th Battalion, Special Armed Force, Gwalior.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

On the 26th October 1959, Shri Quinn, Commandant, 4th Battalion, Special Armed Force, Gwalior received information about the presence of Rupa's gang in the Chambal ravines, two miles east of Police Station Mahua, district Morena. Shri Quinn collected eight platoons of his Battalion and divided them into four parties for the raid against the gang. Three platoons under Company Commander Thapa were deployed to be the driving force and one platoon each was employed to seal the left and right flanks of the driving force. Company Commander Kartar Singh, with his three platoons, was given the task of laying ambushes in an area about three miles long between the gang and the Chambal river. The four parties were to maintain radio contact with Shri Quinn, who was directing the operations from Police Station Mahua. Company Commander Kartar Singh posted his company in small sections and half sections covering all the escape routes between the gang and the river and reported at about 16.00 hours that his company was in position.

2. The drive started at 16.30 hours. The gang immediately split into small parties and tried to break through the ambush line at various points but met stiff opposition at all points which were manned by Shri Kartar Singh's Company. Fire was first opened by the gang at one of the ambush parties at 17.05 hours. The Company Commander moved up and down the ambush line exhorting and helping his men to hold their ground. The personal example that he set was to a great extent responsible for the steadfastness of ambush parties in spite of the fact that at all places the gang was superior to the ambush parties both in numbers and fire power.

3. At 18.15 hours when the gang was still trying to find an escape route it started getting dark. Unfortunately due to atmospheric disturbances the wireless sets stopped functioning and contact with the Battalion Commander was cut off. Firing continued till 20.17 hours. Meanwhile the driving force had withdrawn and returned to the police station. Company Commander Kartar Singh on his own initiative took the difficult decision of remaining in the ravines throughout the night. With his three platoons he encircled the area from where heavy fire had been encountered. Collecting his force in the darkness and deploying it round the danger zone was done at great risk as bullets were flying all round and in the darkness it was not easy to distinguish between friend and foe. Without food and water, and without proper warm clothing, the Company Commander and his men maintained a night long vigil and repulsed a number of attacks from the dacoit gang, which were made to retrieve the body of the gang leader.

4. The personal courage shown by Company Commander Kartar Singh by rushing to the areas where the danger was greatest, gave strength to his men who not only succeeded in repulsing a number of attacks from the most dreaded dacoit gang of the Chambal revines, but also succeeded in killing the gang leader Rupa and his first lieutenant. The courage and resourcefulness shown by the Company Commander in a difficult situation enabled the police force to record their first success against this strong gang.

5. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 86-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Uttar Pradesh Police:—

Name of the officer and rank.

Shri Hari Raj Singh, Sub-Inspector, Civil Police, Pilibhit District, Uttar Pradesh (deceased).

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded

On the 26th July, 1957, Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh, Station Officer, Bilsanda, District Pilibhit, accompanied by two constables, went to village Deoria to execute a non-bailable warrant for the arrest of one Rafiq. On arrival at the village, Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh learnt that Rafiq was in the house of one Azmat Ullah and proceeded there. Azmat Ullah requested Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh to release him on bail but as the warrant was non-bailable the Station Officer expressed his inability to do so and proceeded to take Rafiq away. Azmat Ullah, his son and one other followed the police party closely continuing to press for Rafiq's release on bail. When nearing the hospital at Deoria Kalan, Azmat Ullah said something to his son and the latter returned to the village. The Police party had not gone very much farther when six other persons armed with lathis joined Azmat Ullah. They upbraided Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh and demanded the release of Rafiq on bail. Meanwhile, Azmat Ullah's son returned bringing with him some 40 men armed with lathis and pitchforks, and proceeded to attack the police party. Despite this, Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh did not release Rafiq. One of the mob then gave Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh a blow on the head with a lathi and released Rafiq, whereupon Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh fired a shot in the air in order to disperse the mob. They, however, made a concerted attack on the police party at which Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh fired three or four shots in self defence killing Azmat Ullah and injuring his son. The police party then continued to retreat warding off lathi and pitchfork blows from the mob. Unfortunately, Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh tripped and fell and was set upon by the mob and killed on the spot. By this time, many villagers had collected but the attackers made good their escape taking with them Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh's revolver.

Throughout this incident Sub-Inspector Hari Raj Singh displayed cool courage and devotion to duty of a very high order. It was largely due to his complete fearlessness and total disregard for his personal safety, that the mob were prevented from killing the two constables. He could very easily have agreed to release Rafiq on bail, but preferred to do his duty and in his devotion to it laid down his life.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.

No. 87-Pres./60.—The President is pleased to award the Police Medal for gallantry to the undermentioned officer of the Andhra Pradesh Police:—

Name of the Officer and rank.

Shri Battina Ramaiah,
Constable No. 348,
V Battalion,
Andhra Pradesh Special Police.

Statement of services for which the decoration has been awarded.

On November 2nd, 1959, Sri Battina Ramaiah, Constable No. 348 of the V Battalion, Andhra Pradesh Special Police, was on sentry duty at Khet, a border Outpost. At 23.45 hours his post was fired on from about 150 yards by raiders from across the border who were armed with Bren guns. Police Constable Battina Ramaiah immediately alerted the camp and made the guard 'stand to'. He himself ran to a vantage point to engage the raiders while the others took up their positions. While doing so he was hit in the thigh by a bullet and fell. In spite of profuse bleeding he crawled up to his position and opened fire on the raiders.

In this encounter Constable Battina Ramaiah showed leadership, courage and devotion to duty of a very high order.

2. This award is made for gallantry under rule 4(i) of the rules governing the award of the Police Medal and consequently carries with it the special allowance admissible to officers of and below the rank of Inspector of Police as provided in rule 5.
